Fire Damage Restoration in North Salt Lake UT

Fire can lead to devastating effects regardless of how it starts. Heat, flames, and smoke could lead to serious damage in addition to the water that is used to put out the flames. We will start with a thorough inspection that will help us map out the damage. We can provide you with a timeline for repairs. After this, we will start on the fire cleanup process. We can handle soot removal, smoke removal, ruined flooring, and even drywall damage. Our goal is to be as efficient as possible to help you with fire damage in North Salt Lake Utah.

North Salt Lake Water Damage Restoration

When it comes to water cleanup in North Salt Lake, those first few hours are critical. That is why it is important for you to call us as quickly as possible. We want to figure out where the problem started so that we know how to attack the water damage. Then, we can remove the standing water and use powerful fans to help us remove the excess moisture. Once this is done, we can handle any physical damage that might be present. This includes sanitizing the area, removing flooring, and getting rid of any structural materials that could put your building at risk.
